HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!
IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.
It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.
It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:
E. E. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.
Afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

THE EAST

Gideon Welles is going to Europe. Will not some old Noah give him an ark to sail in? He will feel more at-home.

Colonel May, formerly of the United States army, has been arrested in Mexico, on the charge of attempting to carry his regiment over to the Rebel Generals' Negrete.

Philadelphia has doubled its water capacity and the Fairmouth works by a new turbine wheel. The work is declared to be the largest ever done in any part of the world.

A correspondent asks the Philadelphia Press "What is the crowning glory of Andy Johnson's official career?" and answers, "In getting Mudd out of the Dry Tortugas!"

Chicago claims two representatives in the new House, Mr. Judd, who was regularly elected from the Illinois district, and Mr Anthony A. C. Rogers, Democratic carpet-bagger, who was elected for the second Arkansas district, but who still resides in Chicago.

The Hartford Times is surprised that General Grant has not appointed Bonner's horse, Dexter, to the Interior Department. To what place, pray? Buckley's? Is it necessary, then, in these changes, to put a first class horse in the place of every second class jackass?

The Indianapolis (Ind.) Sentinel says that information has been received by the police force of that city, that several strangers known to have money in their possession, have mysteriously disappeared from the city lately, in such a manner as to justify the suspicion of foul play.

The New York Central railroad having neglected to pay a government tax of five per cent on its net earnings, the question will come up before the Internal Revenue Department. The amount involved is $1,200,000. It is presumed the road will have to pay it if the case goes to the court.

A couple "of high social position" in New Orleans recently appeared at one of the churches in that city and were married. At the close of the ceremony the husband informed his bride that she would never see his face again. He walked off, she fainted, and there is a mystery.

The people of Chicago are agitating the public park question. The Republican, advocating the proposition, says: "Lands that can be had this year may be out of reach next. Every stake of progress will be a battle with prejudice, apathy and opposition." The same arguments are equally applicable here.

Breckinridge made a speech to his assembled neighbors, on his arrival home in Lexington. It was like all other formal responsive speeches, except that he said he "no more felt the political volcano." Pretty well extinguished he certainly is, and volcanic he must have been, when he enlisted, in the Lost Cause.

The Cox family muster strong in the Department of the Interior. The Secretary is Jacob D. Cox; the Chief Clerk is John C.; the Commissioner of Pensions, Christopher C.; while Ezekiel T. brings up the rear as a clerk in the Patent Office. None of these gentlemen are related to each other, and they originally came from different parts of the country.

Gen. Badeau's Military History of U. S. Grant is being translated into the French, German and Spanish languages. Senor Romero is making the Spanish translation; two distinguished gentlemen, one a professor at Berlin, and the other at Heidelberg, are preparing the German translation, and an eminent French scholar the French translation.

Gen. Sol. Meredeth died at Cambridge City, Indiana, on the 17th March. He was a native of North Carolina, but in early life removed to Indiana, where he took a prominent part in public affairs. On the breaking out of the rebellion he was appointed to the command of a regiment, and subsequently was promoted to brigadier general. At the close of the war he ran for Congress against Hon. Geo. W. Julian, but was defeated.

GENERAL PARAGRAPHS.

By Overland Mail.

GENERAL LONGSTREET.

(From the Missouri Democrat, March 17.)

When General Longstreet wrote his splendid and manly letter sustaining the reconstruction policy of Congress, and followed it with earnest personal efforts for the Republican cause, he was at once abused and villified in true Southern style by all the unreconstructed. He was a renegade, a traitor to his people, a worthless wretch—said the very men who had been most fond of applauding his services as a soldier in the rebel cause. His resistless logic—"we staked all that we had upon the war and lost; it is for the victors to dictate terms of peace"—had no effect on the addled brains of ranting Southern fanatics. Now, because General Grant has chosen to appoint this same Longstreet Surveyor for the port of New Orleans, not only rebel papers, but professedly loyal journals at the North, of the Democratic sort, will join in abusing him. Probably the chorus of hounds will not alarm him very much. Of all former rebel soldiers, Longstreet was one of the very first to accept in good faith the results of the war, and to go to work in earnest to repair the evils done, by a genuine support of the government. We do not know of any other of that class who deserves as much at the hands of the government, or whose appointment would give as good evidence of the spirit in which a hearty and sincere repentance will be received.

THE ALABAMA TREATY.

(From the London Saturday Review.)

It is incredible that any serious politician in the United States should contemplate after years of negotiation ending in the concession of almost every American demand, an utterly unprovoked resort to arms. It is, indeed, by latent menaces that American diplomacy has succeeded in alarming the timid portion of the English community, including, perhaps, more than one statesman in high office; but there is a limit to the concessions which might be preferable to a rupture. If the treaty is not ratified, there ought to be no hurry to recommencing negotiations. After approaching to the verge of humiliation in its anxiety for justice and conciliation, the English Government has thrown upon the United States the responsibility of deliberately keeping the quarrel open. No great importance should be attached to the willful retention of a pretext for war. Grave as the evils of war would be, it would be better for England to face it at once than to submit to intolerable degradation. A war gratuitously commenced for the purpose of avenging on England the recognition of belligerency which was simultaneously accorded by France, and two or three weeks later by every European power, including Russia, would be an outrage revolting to the moral sense of mankind, and ultimately it would not go unpunished.

SECRETARY BOUTWELL'S VIEWS.

(From the New York Sun, March 15.)

The accession of Geo. S. Boutwell to the Treasury will at once induce a curiosity to know what his views are on financial matters. During the campaign of last autumn he was present at the Republican State Convention in Massachusetts, and being called to the platform for a speech, made an address replete with good sense upon this very topic of the finances. The pith of his ideas is contained in the easily understood sentence taken from that address, and will be read this morning with great interest. Mr. Boutwell said:

"We do not propose to tolerate sanctions or permit an issue of demand notes payable in coin to be exchanged for the time bonds of the United States. We intend to limit, and, if necessary, to diminish gradually the volume of paper money, until it approximates in value to the standard of coin. We intend that there shall be one currency for the bondholder, the merchant, the farmer, the pensioner and the laborer. That currency shall be of the value of gold. When this is done the public debt will be paid, as the resources of the country may permit, and to the satisfaction of those who pay and of those who receive. When the credit of the country is restored, as it will be by the single fact of the election of General Grant, we can issue bonds payable after ten or twenty years, bearing a lower rate of interest, and thus save annually the sum of twenty or thirty millions of dollars. But first of all, as a means of restoring the public credit, the people must dispel by their votes the apprehension of national dishonesty in the public finances. The Republican party knows no policy in finance but honesty."

WOODEN RAILROAD.

The New York Shoemaker gives part of a letter from the President of the Clifton Iron Co., describing its road as follows: "The rails are of hard maple scantling, 4x6 inches, set on round ties, on which are framed slots 6x4. The rails set on edge and keyed in the slots by two wooden wedges driven against each other, project two inches above the ties. The rails admit of bending sufficiently to make the curves. The ties are laid on the earth and ballasted in the usual manner to two inches of the bottom rail. It takes 21,120 feet, board measure, of scantling for a mile, and 1,760 ties at three feet apart. Our road is a very rough one. We have a great deal of trestle work, some of it over thirty feet high, which is vastly more expensive than a level route. The engines used weigh from ten to fourteen tons. The rails will probably last about five or six years. An engine will move about thirty tons of freight at about six to eight miles an hour, with heavy grades and sharp curves. The company expects to move over the road next year from 50,000 to 100,000 tons freight. Trains have passed over the road, light, at the rate of twenty miles an hour; but this would not do for freight."

WELSH IMMIGRATION.

The Kansas City Journal of Commerce says: We learn that J. Mather Jones, Esq., of Utica, publisher of Y Dryeh, has secured between 70,000 and 100,000 acres of land in Osage county, Kansas, for the purpose of settling the same with Welsh people. This large tract is said to be located within thirty miles of Topeka, the capital of the State, being the western half of the well known Sac and Fox Reservation, acknowledged to be the finest and most productive section of the State. The Dryeh speaks of the land as being underlaid with coal, well timbered and watered, and entirely surrounded by settlements.

THE PUBLIC CREDIT BILL.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The bill to strengthen the Public Credit was approved by the President to-day. The following is a copy of the bill: Be it enacted, &c., That in order to remove any doubt as to the purpose of the Government to discharge all its obligations to the public creditors, and to settle conflicting questions and interpretations of the law by virtue of which such obligations have been contracted, it is hereby provided and declared that the faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment in coin or its equivalent of all the obligations of the United States not bearing interest, known as United States notes, and of all the interest-bearing obligations, except in cases where the law authorizing the issue of any such obligations has expressly provided that the same may be paid in lawful money, or in any other currency than gold and silver, but none of the said interest-bearing obligations, not already due, shall be redeemed or paid before maturity unless at such times as United States notes shall be convertible into coin at the option of the holder, or unless at such time bonds of the United States, bearing a lower rate of interest than the bonds to be redeemed, can be sold at par in coin. And the United States also solemnly pledges its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for the redemption of the United States notes in coin.

THE WEST.

The Sacramento Gas Company has increased its capital stock to $1,000,000, and declared a dividend of one-half of one per cent on the increased stock.

The people of Nevada (Cal.) lately organized a Sunday School for the instruction of Chinese. No doubt we shall soon hear that the house has been burned by the enlightened Democracy of that vicinity.

The Honolulu Gazette of the 17th March says: The sugar crop is coming forward rapidly, but we fear it is going to fall far below our estimate. There is a general complaint that the yield is not equal to former years, and the best informed think this year's crop will be two or three thousand tons short of last.

The Stockton (Cal.) Gazette of March 21st, says: About two hundred men and numerous teams are employed in grading the Western Pacific railroad through Sacramento street, in the environs of that city. Near the Asylum a large party are camped, and are throwing up an excellent grade in a very rapid manner.

The San Francisco Herald learns from some that source on the 1st of July an emigrant train will leave New York city and make the through trip to Sacramento, for less than one hundred dollars in currency cost for passage, and through tickets for passage in first class cars will not cost over one hundred dollars in gold.

The San Francisco Herald has, to its own satisfaction, proved that Chinamen will vote if the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States passes. We shall have abundant opportunity of testing that, for the amendment will be adopted. But then the Herald and all the opposition will change their opinions.

The San Francisco Bulletin says: "If the Senate Committee's report should be adopted, making Ogden the meeting point between the two great continental roads, the actual difference in the length of the two lines would not be great. The Union Pacific would have 985 miles; the Central Pacific would have 782 miles, to which would be added the road from Sacramento to San Francisco, not less than 120 miles by the more direct route.

Says the San Francisco Herald: A quantity of Japanese articles, being presents for his Excellency President Grant, arrived here by the steamship Great Republic, on the 27th ultimo, and have been forwarded overland to Washington. The presents consist of a Japanese coat of mail, a dozen Japanese silken robes, and a variety of crockery ware and laquered boxes. As the Constitution prohibits officers of this Republic from accepting presents from foreign princes or potentates, these articles will probably grace a show case in the halls of the United States Patent Office, or be donated to some charity fair.

Industrial Notes.

Says the California Farmer: From every source we have information of the excellence of oil cake meal as feed. We have met hundreds of our stockmen and dairymen who have used this food, all of whom speak of its excellence above other kind of food, and cheaper too than any other kind of food known.

The Massachusetts Ploughman says: Were it not for the improved machinery now in use upon farms, particularly reapers, mowers and threshing machines, it would be utterly impossible to supply the home consumption of grain in this country. Supposing the grain was all cut by the old-fashioned sickle, the price of flour would be so high as to prevent the laboring class in our cities from using the article.

It appears from a memorial recently published and addressed to the New Jersey Legislature, that more than half of all the goods transported between New York and Philadelphia are carried the circuitous sea route in preference to the more direct and route, and this notwithstanding there are two distinct lines of railway and an inland water route by way of the Delaware river and Raritan Canal.

Some years since a wild goose was shot in Washington Territory, and a few grains of wheat were taken from its craw. Being very large and full they were preserved and planted. The yield was found to be so great as to lead to its propagation, until this variety, which is known in the Territory as "Goose Wheat," has become a standard one in that section of the country. Samples of this wheat were recently sent to the Agricultural Department at Washington. Upon examining the samples of the museum, of which there are some 2,000 varieties, the same wheat was found, being one of the samples sent from the Paris Exposition, and grown in Cuena, in Spain.

Odds and Ends.

General Rawlins, the present Secretary of War, was it is said, a charcoal burner once when he was a boy.

A Democratic paper thinks "Grant may be a good tanner but he is an uncommonly poor cabinetmaker."

Ashland, the home of Clay, is now the site of a University, attended by over 600 students from all parts of the Union.

Debates in the Louisiana Legislature are conducted partly in English, partly in French, and sometimes in German.

The Knights of St. Crispin, a secret society of shoemakers, is said to have one hundred thousand members in this country.

Chicago has found out that her population in 1890 will be 11,000,000, and that therefore she will be the largest city in the world.

The Quebec Chronicle says that the discovery of America may be conceded to be a great blessing to mankind at large, without denying its minor disadvantages.

There is a Mississippi negro, one hundred and eleven years old, who does not claim to have been Washington's body servant.

It is said that the friends of Renan have advised him not to publish his "Life of St. Paul" on account of its inferiority to the "Life of Jesus." Isn't this making rather too much of Renan?

Bridgeport, Connecticut, has a colored girl who can lift a keg of nails weighing 106 pounds, with his teeth, and while kneeling one knee hold it up for a minute. By this feat he won a bet of ten cents.

A late divorce case in Chicago develops the fact that an old man, after nineteen years of wedded life, married three other women in rapid succession, and thus maintained four establishments.

The Great Diner out having consumed his seventeenth dinner in the interest of the Alabama claims, the Americans in London are discussing the propriety of presenting him with a knife, fork and wine glass on his re-embarkation for Baltimore.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR
Harley McDonald,

WHAT HE GOT FOR HIS VOTE.—The Illinois Legislature recently appointed a committee to investigate the conduct of certain members charged with corruption. The committee went to work in earnest, determined to do the right thing by their constituents. After laboring several days without accomplishing anything worthy of note, they at last found a member who admitted that he had received something for his vote." Whereupon the committee, thunderstruck at their own success in unearthing the villainy, proceeded to catechise the corrupt member, with the following result:

Question—You have stated that you have, on a certain occasion, received something for your vote, Did the Committee understand you correctly?

Answer—Yes, sir.

Question—Have you received anything for your vote on more than one bill?

Answer—Yes, sir.

Question—About how many?

Answer—I cannot tell without stopping to think a little while.

Question—We will waive that point for the present. You will now state to the committee how much you got for your vote. The reporter will please report the answer in full, and the witness will speak slowly, in order that the answer may be taken down.

Answer—I got the curses of the whole community. We may add that the Illinois Legislator's experience is not an uncommon one.

The parrot which exclaimed, on being taken into his room where there was a number of its species, "Good God, what a lot of parrots!" has been beaten, by a "Polly" owned by some one living in the vicinity of Norwich, Conn. One day a gentleman called at his residence, and his daughter on learning who it was exclaimed, "Oh, dear! what has he come for?" The parrot heard the exclamation, and when the gentleman was ushered into the room where it was, screamed out, "Oh Lord! what the devil did you come for?" Another family near by owned a parrot which was very fond of all kinds of cake except johnnycake, and got a slice occasionally from the table. One morning there was nothing on the table to give "Polly" but a piece of johnnycake, and it was placed before her with the remark that it must do for her breakfast. The bird eyed it with disgust, turned it over, looked up to the one who had placed it before her, and exclaimed: "Oh, nothing but johnnycake!"

China seems to be the acceptable of all the worn-out, old-fashioned cannon and fire-arms of the day. Seven smooth-bore 64-pounders, found in the Waryerian battery at Stade, formerly used to enforce the payment of Stade dues levied on ships and cargoes passing up the Elbe and designed for Hamburg, were recently sold by the Prussian Government at public auction. There being no competition, they were knocked down for a mere song to a speculative local publican who has sent them to Hamburg whence they will be shipped for the Chinese to play soldier with, and eventually to be riddled and spiked by a European pounding party in some future war.

ONE FINE THEATER.—The second representation of Arrah-na-pogue attracted a very full house at the Fine Theater, last night. This drama, we think, has been put upon the stage with better effect than either of Mr. Wheatleigh's pieces which have preceded it, and Mr. Wheatleigh as Shaun, the Post, has won golden opinions which he never could have gained from a Portland audience, under any circumstances, as Smarkey, or as Sam Terry, the Swell. His personation of the sanguine honest and rollicking, but manly, Irish boy, his magnificence bearing as the prisoner, proud to die to save the chief of the McCoulas, his trust in and devotion to the beautiful Arrah Meelish, his sweetheart and then his wife, were so true to the traditional Irish character as to call forth unbounded applause which must have been as acceptable to the actor as it was spontaneous and generous on the part of the audience. His song, "Wearing of the Green," was dramatically rendered, and we do not believe that a single person in the audience heard it with out being touched with compassion for the oppressed humanity of the Green Isle, and stirred with indignation against their oppressors. Through the personation Mr. Wheatleigh sustained himself highly as an Irishman that his audience would not and did not fail to sympathize as fully with his joys, hopes, sorrows and final triumph, as though the scenes through which he passed were actual, living ones. Mrs Bates personation of Arrah Meelish was not only charming but artistic. Mr I Thayer as the Colby, was a first-rate specimen of what we conceive the Irish gentleman to be, when perfectly free from the contamination which is always flowing out from the foot of the throne. Mr E. N. Thayer's Michael Feeny was so excellent that it was almost impossible to restrain one's self from heartily hissing the detestable processerver and informer. The jig dance by Thornton and Miss Field provoked unbounded and uncontrollable laughter. Both deserve high credit. But it would be too long a chapter to particularize all the excellencies of the actors and the piece. We shall trust that the management will be persuaded to give us Arra-na-pogue not only once, but many times—for it is a drama which will bear frequent repetitions.

Tonight, the "Lancashire Lass," in which Mr. Wheatleigh will take the part of a party by the name of Johnson, and Mrs. Bates will personate Ruth; supported by an excellent cast, embracing the entire strength of the

ANOTHER VIEW OF WHITE PINE.—The following letter from Hamilton, White Pine District, dated March 22d, has been handed us for publication. It gives a decided-ly different view of that region from that given by Mr. Hagan, and as it is always well to look upon both sides of a question before buying, we give it publication:

HAMILTON, March 22, 1869.

DEAR ——: I promised to write you a few lines, and you may have to put up with my scrawl, about me. Well, I enjoyed the trip from Sacramento to Elko City, about 290 miles, and from there to Hamilton, the county seat of White Pine county, about 100 miles. The White Pine mines are 50 miles south of Elko, the railroad station. I have been here about a week, and it has been snowing fearfully ever since I arrived. There are probably over 2,000 men, more or less, here, and many have to go hungry. A good many are going back to Idaho, Montana and California. The White Pine excitement has been one great humbug. There are a few ledges very rich, but 9 out of 10 are all Wild-cat is open the market. Greenwood, who was in stock with Fogus, in Silver City, is here, and I met Taylor, who kept a hotel in Portland. I have met with several that I know. This town is located about 6,000 feet above the level of the sea, and there is not a stick of timber within several miles. Wood is $30 per cord and water 50c per gallon. Board and lodging is $4 per day. I shoveled snow about two hours and made $4 to-day. A man has to rustle here. The Indians killed three men, 100 miles south of here, a few days ago. The miners are on Treasure Hill, two and a half miles, all up hill, from here.

The above letter was written by C. W. Shively to his brother, John M. Shively at Astoria.

A letter from the Librarian of Harvard University, to the effect that, in one of our citizens, warns us against a man who called himself there T. S. Nathans, and pretended to be a convert from Judaism to Christianity. After boarding in Boston and finding his way into Harvard, he has decamped, leaving large debts, and many books, a number of our valuable books, from the College Library, which he had borrowed. He is said to have left "for parts unknown" in Oregon. Should he have changed his name, he can be recognized by a defect in one of his eyes, which is not unlike a squint, while past being in the room. Mr. Sibley, the Librarian, writes in hope of recovering the lost books which may be offered for sale here or elsewhere. "Pass him along."

CITY.—A business letter to this office, dated Coquille City, Coos county, concludes with the following: "There are now in this port, loading with lumber for San Francisco, one barkentine, two barques and five schooners.....The new steamer Enterprise, owned by John Parrishbaker, has arrived from Francisco. She is said to be one of the finest steamers owned on this coast. The coal mines owned by John Parrishbaker, have been purchased by a company of capitalists of San Francisco, who intend to do a large coaling business.....There are now four vessels being built here.....There will be more coal and lumber shipped from here this season than ever before."

THE WOOL TRIAL AT SALEM.—From persons who arrived down from Salem yesterday we learn that the important trial at that city that the trial of Dr. McAfee, on the charge of poisoning his wife, would result in the insane hospital, for want of sufficient evidence. Two or three persons with whom we talked, expressed their conviction of his guilt, but thought the evidence was but partial, as it was brought before the jury by the prosecution. The Statesman publishes the entire testimony, much of which is irrelevant and without bearing. LATER.—A telegram of last evening, says the jury found a verdict of "not guilty."

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—The Commercial says: "A suit for the recovery of $20,000 as damages, has been commenced in the Circuit Court, against Dr. Poppleton of this city, by Lyman Williams.

Williams is the man whose leg was amputated a few days since by Drs. Watkins, Wythe and Cardwell. The leg was broken or dislocated last July, and Dr. Watkins set it then or soon after; but it never got well, and the suit for damages.

GOING TO SAN FRANCISCO.—The San Francisco Herald of March 30, says: "The receipts of articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date have been as follows: Flour, or sks 222,832; Wheat, sks 13,857; Oats, sks 35,455; Barley, sks 240; Potatoes, sks 443, bbl bbls 93; Hay, 53, pkgs 222; Bacon, pkgs 1,882; Beef, bbls 409; Butter, pkgs 18; Cheese, pkgs 18; Hams, pkgs 182; Lard, pkgs 1,172; Pork, bbls 210; Wool, bales 1,068.

—The regular monthly sociable of the Church connected with the M. E. Church will be held this evening. A table will be spread. The public are respectfully invited. Admittance free. There will be a meeting of the Society in the class room at half past six o'clock P. M., when the annual reports will be heard and officers for the ensuing year. A full attendance is desired.

—The Commercial Herald of March 30, under the head of "Shipping Intelligence" mentions that the bark "C. Bowie, from New York to Portland, put into Valparaiso February 14th, in latitude 51° 20' south and longitude 75° west. The bark Almatia from San Francisco, with merchandise, is now due at this port.....The bark "Ida" has gone to Puget Sound for a cargo of lumber.

PROSPECTS IN YAMHILL.—The Commercial says: "From a private source we learn that the farmers in the vicinity of Dayton, Yamhill county, have not yet finished their seeding. Everything looks encouraging and will be reaped if the season prove favorable. Fifty per cent. more grain has been sowed this spring than for a number of past years."

CATTLE MOVEMENT.—The movement of cattle from this valley to the country east of the mountains still continues, arriving on foot and being shipped by the O. C., almost daily. We do not recollect at any time within the last five years when business of this kind has been so extensively carried on as during this spring.

FISHERY LIBRARY.—The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library: The Seven Weeks' War, by Hozier; Life of Aaron Burr, by Parton; China and the Chinese, by Nevins; What I Know about Ben Butler, by Page; Life of Marsh, by the author of the Life of Capt. VIRGINIA, April 8, 9 P. M.—The fire in the Gold Hill mines still continues to burn as bad as ever, owing to a cave in the Yellow Jacket. The firemen cannot now reach the fire. Every effort is being made to clear the drift. Eighteen dead bodies have been taken out of the drifts and the shafts of the burning mine. Nine lay together where they had climbed to a drift one hundred feet above the one thousand foot level. Two of the miners killed, John Hogan and Joseph McClellan, were members of the Virginia Fire Department. Funeral this afternoon.

The 900 foot level of the Crown Point mine is free from smoke. The fire appears to be principally in the Yellow Jacket, south of the cave. It is thought it will take all day to remove the cave so as to get water to bear again on the fire.

VIRGINIA, April 8.—The efforts made in subduing the fire this afternoon have been gradually quite successful. The tunnel of the Yellow Jacket has been cleared of the obstruction caused by the cave, so that water could be brought to bear on the fire. It is now reported that there is no fire on the 800 foot level and but little on the 700 foot level. Another body, that of McCormick, has been brought to the surface. It is hoped and expected that all the bodies will be got to the surface during the day. It is now quite confidently asserted that no material damage has been done to the mines. All the hoisting works are perfect.

VIRGINIA, April 8—9 P. M.—The following is a correct estimate of affairs at the scene of the Gold Hill disaster: Twenty-eight bodies in all have been recovered. There are four more known to be in the mine, and there may possibly be eight more. The fire remains as in the morning, still burning on the 900 foot level, and on the line below the Kentuck and the Yellow Jacket near the south winzee. The tunnel has been so much obstructed by the caves that little effective work has been done to-day towards subduing the flames. The water gave out in the forenoon, but at four in the afternoon a supply sufficient for four or five hours was obtained and a stream sent down. The damage cannot be ascertained until the fire is subdued. It is conceded that it cannot permanently injure the mine. This information is derived from an intelligent workman in the mine, who knows every foot of the ground and was in the mine when the fire commenced. He has since been down as near the fire as one could live. All of the bodies taken from the mine have the appearance of having died a most painful death. The features are flushed, swollen and distorted. One was found hanging by a ladder in a shaft with one leg fast and holding with a death grip by both hands to the ladder. Some were found in the dump at the 1,100 foot level, where they had fallen from the levels above. The most were found in the 1,000 foot level, Crown Point, lying in all sorts of despairing positions, as they fell. Some are terribly disfigured, one so much so as to be unrecognizable.

Gus. Bickell, who was hoisted out alive, died at noon to-day. Funerals have been numerous to-day, attended by the military, firemen, Odd Fellows and miners Union organization.

Robert Welsh, who has worked most heroically in getting out the dead, was taken out this after noon nearly insensible from asphyxia.

The name of John King, given in the list of the dead, should have been John Halliser.

Eleven of the miners killed were married and two had families of five children each. It is hoped that the corporations for which their protectors lost their lives will not prove soulless in caring for them.

J. Oran, a miner in the Hale & Norcross, had the fingers of his left hand badly crushed to-day, disabling him for some weeks.

Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped last evening twelve bars of bullion, weighing 630 pounds and valued at $1,589,899.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

SALEM, April 8.—The Circuit Court has been in session here this week for the trial of criminal cases.

John D. Whitney and Thomas Stone both plead guilty to larceny. The former was sentenced to three and the latter to two years in the Penitentiary.

The case of Dr J. W. McAfee, for poisoning his wife, was submitted to the jury to day. After a few hours they returned a verdict of not guilty.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, April 8.—The Victoria Eleven sailed this morning by the steamer Active, to play a match game with the San Francisco Cricksters.

News has been received by the last mail which confirms the appointment of Mr. Hankins as Colonial Secretary of this Colony. Mr. Hankins will assume the duties of his office shortly.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

MADRID, April 8.—It is reported that Serrano and Topete will resign their positions in the Provisional Government, and that a new Directory is being formed.

Says the San Francisco Commercial Herald: When the brig North made her appearance in this harbor we foretold her success, and predicted that it would lead to the ultimate abandonment of bowsprits as costly, useless and ponderous. The Northern is a new hermaphrodite brig of 175 tons register, 105 feet keel, 25 feet beam and 10 feet hold. With such an example before them we are inclined to believe that our ship builders will hereafter eschew the heavy bowsprit and its costly and numerous appendages in the construction of brigs.

A dispatch from St. George, Utah, says there is no doubt but the Navajoes have taken possession of the country south, between there and the Colorado. It is also reported that they are trying to form an alliance with the Hualpais, Shebits and Pah Utes, and intend making a business of plundering and robbing the settlements of their stock.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

HOAGLAND'S

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,

Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the easiest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.
